ITEMS OF INTEREST.

Mosiah Evans made a business trip to Ogden Tuesday.

Orvil Smith has secured a position at Ritter Bros. Drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Foulger spent Christmas with relatives in Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Burdett Smith left Monday to spend the holidays in Ogden.

The brick work of Jensen Bros. new business block is going up in good shape.

FOR SALE.—4-Room House with pantry and closet. Inquire at The Foulger Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Eph. Coombs returned Sunday evening from a visit to the state capital.

Early Sunday morning a fine son was born to the wife of Leo Clayton. All concerned on the improve.

Booth's Crowing Rooster calendars are now crowing in the most of the homes of this city and vicinity.

Tuesday night Marshal T. L. Snook arrested two Indians from Washakie who had in their possession two pints of whiskey and one pint of alcohol.

Early last Saturday morning the Stork left at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Haws of Garland North, a charming daughter. The baby was born on its mother's birthday.

The Garland Mercantile Company issued to their customers and friends this week a handsome plate with a 1909 calendar attached to the center of the plate. Quite a novelty, Eh!

Monday Marshal T. L. Snook returned from Nappa, California, where he went as a witness in the Wood-Apple murder case. One of the parties tried was found guilty of murder in the first degree and the other of murder in the second degree.

The Christmas edition of the Deseret Evening News, 6 sections and a handsome cover page, was certainly a gem. Garland received a good write-up and cuts of the Town Board, Ritter Bros. block and the Garland Mercantile Co. appeared with the write-up. The edition consists of 100 pages.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Natell Barnard of this city and Andrew L. Jensen of Brigham City the event to take place in Salt Lake City, Wednesday, Jan. 6th. A grand reception will be given the young couple at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Osro Barnard, Saturday afternoon, January 9th.

If you receive a copy of the Garland Globe with "Sample copy" written on the corner, remember that it is an invitation for you to subscribe. $1.50 will give you the Globe 52 weeks and you cannot afford to be without your home paper.

STAKE CONVENTION.

The first mutual improvement convention of the Bear River Stake will be held in this city next Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 2nd and 3rd, beginning Saturday night with a fine entertainment, after which dancing will be engaged in and refreshments served.

Sunday at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m., sessions will be held at the hall and an excellent program has been arranged for both these meetings. Sunday evening, commencing at 6 p. m., a conjoint session will be held. A special invitation is extended to the Stake Presidency, members of the High Council and Bishops of wards and their wives to be present. The program will appear in our next issue.

MARRIED-IN BRIGHAM.

Miss Ella Von Madsen and Mr. Hartman Hunsaker, two of Honeyville's most popular young people, were united in marriage at Brigham City, Wednesday, of this week. Congratulations.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

Bp. A. R. Capener presided at last Sunday afternoon's services, 1st Counselor D. E. Manning in charge. The singing was congregational. Prayer by Wm. Preston. The sacrament was administered by Elders Peter Boss and Oluf Johnson. Following were the speakers: W. H. Clayton, Felix Baird and Ed. Norr. Singing, We Thank Thee O God for a Prophet. Benediction by Peter Jensen.

The Bear River Stake Sunday School Union meeting was held at the public school house in the afternoon all of the stake Sunday schools being represented except Thatcher, Beaver and Plymouth. Matters pertaining to Sunday school work were presented and discussed.

A. R. LUNDSTEDT—Tailor. Clothes cleaned, pressed and repaired. Suits made to order. Owens block, Garland, Utah.

THE GRAND TWO-DAY BAZAR.

The Bear River Stake Primary Bazar held in this city Friday and Saturday, Dec. 18th and 19th, proved to be a very successful affair both from a social and financial standpoint. The Bazar opened Friday at 10 a. m., and closed Saturday at midnight. Both days the hall was crowded with visitors from all over the valley. All kinds of home-made articles consisting of fancy work, dolls, candy, infant's wear, etc., were placed on sale from the booths and refreshments were served. Fishing ponds were also in evidence and were well patronized.

During the afternoon (Friday) Mrs. August Nichols rendered some choice piano selections that were highly appreciated.

Friday evening a grand free concert was given and the program as advertised carried out in fine style. Saturday was the biggest day and the crowd in attendance was a large one.

Santa Claus surprised all the children and gave them peanuts and candy. Over 300 bags were given away.

Saturday evening a grand auction ball was given at the hall which was well attended. At this dance the articles left over from the Bazar were raffled off and all goods disposed of. The whole affair was a high success.

MRS. McRANEY'S EXPERIENCE.

Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians, but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell how I suffered, and I had given up hope of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Kidney Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and felt it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me. Ritter Bros., Garland, and Tremont drug store, Tremont."

PROF McEWEN AND HIS COMPANY

Crowded houses greeted Prof. McEwen and his company at the performances given in this city, beginning Monday night. Mr. McEwen is indeed a master magician and world-famed hypnotist. His introductory talks on the wonderfully mysterious hypnotic forces and his scientific demonstration of mind reading, etc., highly entertained all who attended the performances. Mrs. Florence McEwen sang some very choice vocal selections and was recalled after each member. The pianist, Mr. R. L. Fletcher, pleased everybody with piano selections of the high-class order.

Considerable merriment was created by the actions of those who went on the stage to be hypnotized.

CHRISTMAS IN THE ARCTIC.

Theatrical Performance by Crew of an Icebound Ship Sixty Years Ago.

Christmas eve was the opening night of the theater, the first one ever known in those regions, writes Capt. B. S. Osborn, in Recreation. It opened to a full house and yet not an advertisement had appeared in any paper on the face of the globe. No flaring posters had adorned the walls of the village on shore, but the villagers were all there as "first nighters." Promptly at eight o'clock the orchestra—the minstrel band—in lieu of an opening overture, gave us a selection from their repertoire, which was generally applauded, and to the tinkling of a bell up went the curtain. The play was "Black-Eyed Susan," adapted from a famous old song of that name, well known to all sailors in those times. It was a play in three acts, interspersed with some familiar sea ditties of the day. Susan was the star of the evening and the young fellow who took her part played and looked it to perfection. His make-up was very clever, considering the material at his command. The wig had been made of fine combed yarns braided as deftly as any girl could have done it. Susan's cheeks and lips were very red—from the paint pot—and large pendant earrings dangled from her ears. Her dress was faultless in fashion and fit, her carriage graceful and she acted the girl to the unbounded satisfaction of the "vast assemblage." The Esquimaux portion of the audience was amazed at the performance, but Susan was an even greater puzzle to them. None of them had ever seen a white woman. It was good as a play to watch those poor, untutored natives as they followed the piece with intense wonderment.

CARD OF THANKS.

We the undersigned officers of the Bear River Stake Primary Assn., desire to thank all the wards of the stake and the public generally for their liberal patronage and contributions in making the Bazar a success.

NOTICE.

United States Land Office,
Salt Lake City, Utah,
Nov. 15th, 1908.

To whom it may concern:—

Notice is hereby given that the State of Utah has filed in this office a list (Serial No. 922) of lands selected by the said state, under Section 6 of the Act of Congress, approved July 16, 1894, as Indemnity School Lands, viz: Lots 11, 12, 13, and 14, Sec. 33, T. 15 N., R. 6 W., S. 10 M. A copy of said list, so far as it relates to said tracts by descriptive subdivisions, has been conspicuously posted in this office for inspection by any person interested, and by the public generally.

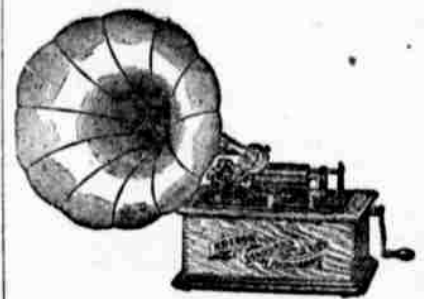

This notice will be published for five (5) successive weeks, and during this period protests or contests against the claim of the state to any of the tracts or subdivisions hereinbefore described, on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than for agricultural purposes, will be received and noted for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D. C. Failure so to protest or contest, within the time specified, will be considered sufficient evidence of the non-mineral character of the tracts, and the selection thereof, being otherwise free from objection, will be recommended for approval.

E. D. R. THOMPSON,
Register.
